Dear Brother although business prevents me from writing to you as often as I should wish yet. I often call to mind the Happy Hours I spent with you in Phila. your conversation was profitable to me, I often here of the Deaths of My Friends some East & others West are proofs that We are all hastening to another World but if We are only prepared. We can there meet to part no more, for ever, for all the time that I have been in this County it appears as if the good Lord has helped me We have a G. C. Laps here and a good Sunday school here and prospects for religion is favourable here. I this morning saw a Letter in the Advocate of J. D. D. mentioning about the Western Advocate. I thought I must send for it Perhaps it might be the means of having one that my Family are all in good Health and join in sending their respects to you I still remain your servant in the Lord
